11 v.

12 HOME DEPOT U.S.A., INC.,

13 Defendant.
14

Case No.: 15-CV-2236-CAB-AGS

ORDER RE PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO FILE DOCUMENTS UNDER SEAL

[Doc. No. 42]

15 This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's motion to file documents under seal
16 [Doc. No. 42] in connection with his opposition to Defendant's motion for summary
17 judgment. Plaintiff's only argument supporting the confidential nature of these documents
18 is that they were designated as confidential by Defendant. Consequently, the Court does 19 not expect any opposition to the motion from Defendant, who bears the burden of 20 establishing why these documents should be sealed. However, it is not obvious from the 21 contents of the documents themselves that "compelling reasons" justify sealing the 22 documents notwithstanding the "strong presumption" in favor of public access. See
23 Kamakana v. City & Cnty. of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1178 (9th Cir. 2006) ("A party
24 seeking to seal a judicial record then bears the burden of overcoming this strong
25 presumption by meeting the "compelling reasons" standard.").

26 In light of the foregoing, the Court is disinclined to allow the documents seal-lodged
27 at Docket Number 43 to be filed under seal. Nevertheless, the Court does not want to 28 further delay this case with argument about the documents' purported confidential nature.

1 Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

- 2 1. The motion to file under seal is GRANTED temporarily;
- 3 2. On or before January 18, 2017, Defendant shall file either (a) a memorandum not
4 to exceed ten pages explaining why the documents should be filed under seal,
5 with citation to legal authority, if any; or (b) a notice that the confidential
6 designation is withdrawn and the document(s) can be filed publicly;
- 7 3. Plaintiff may, but is not obligated to, file a memorandum not to exceed ten pages
8 asserting her position as to whether the documents should be filed under seal; and
- 9 4. Upon receipt of the response(s) to this Order, the Court will determine whether 10 to order that the documents be sealed permanently, or publicly filed.

11 It is SO ORDERED.

12 Dated: January 11, 2017
